EVIDENCE FOR THE WORLD WE WANT

CAN THERE BE ACCOUNTABILITY WITHOUT LEARNING?

There is an increasing need to ensure that evidence is at the centre of decision making, whether it be for design or implementation of policies and programmes. This is true for government, CSOs and the private sector. The emphasis in the last decade on effectiveness has focused largely on accountability. But is accountability for reporting on planned activities enough? Can there be accountability without learning?

BREAKFAST MEETING
18 September 2015
8.00 am – 10.30 am
Venue: Belmont Square Gardens, Rondebosch
Cost: R250

In collaboration with SAMEA Western Cape, Southern Hemisphere and The Graduate School of Development Policy and Practice, UCT

Celebrating the 2015 year of evaluation.
Bringing together stakeholders from all sectors for a critical engagement on putting evidence and learning into the centre of decision making.

PROVING AND IMPROVING
Learning from evidence for improved policy, planning and implementation.

SPEAKERS
• Trevor Manuel, Senior Fellow, UCT GSDPP
• Ian Goldman, Head: Evaluation and Research, DPME
• Phumeza Mlungwana, General Secretary, Social Justice Coalition

For more details contact Pippa at: 021 422 0205/6 training@southernhemisphere.co.za